

You're Invited to a Physician CME, Nurse and Registered Dietitian CE Group Viewing Event

Understanding the Current Guidelines for Preparing Pediatric and Newborn Feedings in Health Facilities

Caroline Steele, MS, RD, is an expert on pediatric nutrition and lactation, and is co-editor of the newly released, third edition of Infant and Pediatric Feedings: Guidelines for Preparation of Human Milk and Formula in Health Care Facilities. In this presentation, Ms. Steele summarizes regulatory standards and recommendations for human milk and formula handling. She outlines potential failure points that can lead to formula and breast milk mishandling and misadministration, and highlights best practices to reduce these risks.
